

Declaration of Conflicts of Interest

My Name: Camila Pompei

My Date of Birth: 09/23/1986

Team Name: Yeah Gaming

Team Formation Date: 01/01/2020

This is an exhaustive list of the conflicts of interest and business entanglements I have with players and teams that I expect to compete against in professional tournaments. Business entanglement include, but are not limited to, shared management, shared ownership of entities, licensing, and loans. I understand that failure to report my conflicts of interest may result in my disqualification from events and/or forfeiture of proceeds.

Number of Pages Attached: None.

Signature:

Date: 04/20/2020

Other party:	Epitacio Pessoa de Melo Filho, Marcelo Augusto David, Ricardo Sinigaglia, Wilton de Almeida Prado.
Nature of conflict:	Yeah Gaming is co-owned by the esports professionals listed above, also known as TACO, coldzera, dead and zews, respectively. Even though they're also part (hired) by other Organizations/Teams, such as MIBR, FaZe and E.G., both TACO and dead (MIBR), and zews (E.G.), are playing the same division for Road to Rio as Yeah Gaming. Also, co-owners don't take any decisions on the company's behalf. All decisions are taken by Camila Pompei and other staff members, Guilherme Donini, Marcelo Bechara and Rodolfo Mendes. Yeah Gaming's CS:GO roster is Arthur "f4stzin" Schmitt, Alef "tatazin" Pereira, Eduardo "dumau" Wolkmer, Rodrigo "RCF" Caponero and Victor "iDk" Torraca.

Other party:	Immortals Gaming Club (IGC)
Nature of conflict:	Yeah Gaming has an agreement with IGC/MIBR. Immortals Gaming Club has an option to buy out at most 2 of our players, in a calendar year at an agreed upon price, in exchange for a set annual fee payable regardless of actual roster changes.

OP.